

FIELD TRIPS

to the Museum of the Southern Jewish Experience

Field trips consist of a gallery tour
and a 1-hour enrichment program in our classroom.

Gallery tours and program options are determined by grade level.
Educators may choose the program that best fits their curricular goals.

Gallery Tours

3rd-5th Grade

Strangers in a Strange Land

Students explore how immigrants to the U.S. found their way in their new home – the struggles and triumphs of building American identity and community.

6th-8th Grade

A Vital Part of Our Community

Students learn how Jewish people have been important and contributing members of their Southern communities throughout American history.

9th-12th Grade

Both/And

Students investigate how complex, multilayered identities are formed through the framework of Southern/Jewish.

Programs

Core Programs: Extend students' experiences from the galleries to the classroom.

3rd-5th

Strangers in a Strange Land

Students consider the objects that make us feel connected to our homes, families and friends.

6th-8th

A Vital Part of our Community

Team-building exercises help students identify: what makes them vital members of their communities?

9th-12th

Both/And

Students create an "identity sculpture" to explore their own both/and identities.

Thematic Programs: Dive deeper into a particular historical or cultural topic.

3rd-5th

Southern Jewish Youth and the Holocaust

Students learn the personal stories of young people whose lives were touched by the Holocaust.

6th-12th

What We Saw: Primary Holocaust Sources

Students engage with photos, letters, and newspaper articles for a more immediate understanding of the Holocaust.

3rd-8th

Judaism 101

Students learn about Jewish beliefs and practices, get up close to Jewish ritual objects, and make a Hebrew Ten Commandments craft.
